PRINT SOURCES

MONOGRAPHS

The citation of a monograph must include: Author(s), Title, Edition (when the work cited is not the first edition), Publication details. Examples for various situations are given below.

Titles are presented in italics when typed or underlined when handwritten.

Single author

Two authors

Three authors

More than three authors

Works with editors
Follow the same principles as with authors, but add the qualifier (ed.) or (eds.) in parentheses beside the name(s), e.g.:

Corporate author

Works with no authors or editors

Conference proceedings
ITEMS WHICH ARE PART OF A LARGER PUBLICATION

An article within a book

A print reference source

A biographical source

A journal article

A newspaper article

NON PRINT SOURCES
Note that the conventions are the same as above – you need to place the physical format in parentheses at the end of the citation.

An audio recording

A videorecording

A kit

Slides
ELECTRONIC SOURCES

Note that the conventions relating to authors illustrated above, also apply to electronic sources. The following includes examples of citations for information retrieved from the World Wide Web and from electronic databases, and a range of e-resources.

eBook

A Web site – no author

A Web site – with author

An article retrieved from a Web site

YouTube

An online journal

An article retrieved from an online journal

An article from an online reference source

An article from an online biographical source

An article from an online government directory

A reference to an article retrieved from an electronic periodical database

Fox, Justin & Roche, Mary. “The impact of video games on pre-teen boys.” Society issues, vol. 6, no. 10, 2001 : 45-56. Retrieved January 5, 2008 from Science and Geography Education (SAGE) on INFORMIT online

